Calls for submissions:

•The Second Coming: a sequel to Coming to Power, is seeking submissions. We need hot short stories about women to women S/M, bondage, and fetish sex. We will also consider poetry. If you have photos, cartoons, or b&w drawings, please send xerox copies or prints. Do NOT send your only copy of an image!

We'd also like non-fiction about the mess at Michigan, censorship of S/M art and literature, separation, coming out, gender play, S/M etiquette, rules (butch/femmes, top/bottoms, etc.), S/M relationships, daddy or mommy fantasies, the literary debate, vegetarianism and non-leather S/M, discrimination inside and outside the community, public play, younger players, neomasochism, body modification, contracts, transsexuals in the lesbian S/M community, and anything else that interests you.

If you've been involved in the community for 10 years or more, or were involved in founding an organization, we'd like to do an oral history with you or receive an article about your work. Let's preserve a record of our struggle, strength, and power.

We prefer original work, but we'll consider reprints. Please tell us where the work originally appeared. Help us spread the word. If you need your work returned, enclose a SASE. We'd like a phone number where we can reach you. Please give us 4 to 6 weeks to respond. We're especially interested in hearing from women who are not middle-class, white, thin, and able-bodied. Our deadline is April 1, 1993. Send your ideas, completed work, or questions to Pat Galillo and Robin Sweeney, 2215-R Market St #261, SF CA 94114.

•Hundred House Publications is looking for submissions for a gay/lesbian/transvestite/S&M/transsex/bisex/etcetera kind of project. Unimportant writing only—the more bizarre, the better. No winge, whiners, body-wringers or sensitive islets allowed. Also, no rhyming poetry, ever. Fiction up to 4,000 words, poetry, b&w art, and anything else you care to send welcome. Submit w/ SASE, or else. Box 120, Fayetteville, AR 72702-0120.
